No Chance for Passengers Caught in Crash of Rock Island Specials.

TOPEKA, Kan., Jan. 2.-Thirty-five pasengers, mostly Mexicans, were killed and twenty-one seriously injured in a head-on collision at 4.30 A. M. to-day, five miles west of Aka Vista, between passenger trains No. 29, southbound. and No. 20, northbound, on the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Rallway. The wrecked trains run between El Paso and Chicago. Most of the killed and injured were on the south-bound train. The cars went into the ditch and several of them

The majority of whom were curled up in the seats asleep. The cars caught fire soon after they struck, and five of the cars of No. 20 were consumed by the flames.

Train No. 23 bore the brunt of the collision. The cars on No. 30 were not serious: damaged, and they were made up into a train and sent on south in place of the destroyed No. 29.

A special train bearing twenty-eight injured many of them Mexicans, reached Topeka this forenoon. Ambutances hurried them to Stormont Hospital. Twelve bodies were left at Alma. The names are as yet unknown.

An interpreter for the Mexicans was questioned as he lay slowly burning to death under the wire Mage. He said there were twenty-five Mexicans in their party going from Kansas City to El Paso to work. The most of these were burned to death. Soon after giving this information the interpreter himself succumbed.

Greatest Sale of Undermuslins

There isn't a store in the country but what follows the fashion of "January White Sales"—but when you delve into the preja ations we make for ours, become acquainted with the buying power, the progress and methods of this organization, it is not difficult to determine why the greatest values and the most dependable qualities are to be found here. Our representatives search the Linen Centres of Ireland. Scotland and Germany; they go to all the quaint villages in France, where the daintiest of Undermuslins are made; they go to Plauen. Saxony and St. Gaul-from whence come the final Laces and Embroideries. And when their collection is complete and landed here, you are confronted with an assortment that has no counterpart and with prices that distance all competition. So the status that establishes the supremacy of this White Sale. And, at every turn you are saleguarded with the assurance that what you buy is of the highest possible quality for the price—because the standard of the Simpson Crawford Store is correspondingly high.
